

Marshalling at the Practical Butchery – Dressed Lamb Class 2020

Over View:

- Lamb will be sponsored and supplied fresh-chilled
- Lamb is usually stored with ECG coolrooms
- Each competitor to receive one banquet table, covered with plastic film, or one stainless steel table
- Competitor to supply all equipment and chopping boards
- First aid box to be supplied by ECG
- Rubbish bins required at competition location to be supplied by exhibition organizers
- Supplier of lamb is determined by guild committee, contact details to be given to the Marshal in charge two weeks prior to the event to ensure smooth delivery of Lamb
- Tables to be arranged the evening before the competition in a designated area in coordination with the Chief Marshal, Guild Chairman, President or the Guild Coordinator
- Ensure Chain gloves are available to use from the ECG

Marshals Job Description.

Qualification:

- A senior member of the guild committee or someone nominated by the committee.

Primary purpose of Job:

- To ensure the safe and smooth running of the Dressed Lamb class as laid out in the Classes for entry.

Job Details:

- Ensure competitors are at the Lamb area 15 minutes before competition begins
- Supervise the safe, hygienic handling of the lamb in to the area with the help of the supplier and competitors
- Supervise the stewards to maintain a safe working area for competitors and safe area for spectators
- Ensure first aid box is located at staging area

Marshalling at the Practical Butchery – Dressed Lamb Class 2020

- Ensure competitors are following safe practices during the competition to avoid accidents
- Follow up with Chief Marshal, Guild Chairman or the Guild Coordinator for delivery of Lamb
- Any incidents or queries should be directed to the Chief Marshal, Chief Judge, Guild Chairman or the VP administration for help and necessary action
- On completion of the competition and when judging is complete, the displayed cuts to be moved to an area as designated by the Chief Marshal, Guild Chairman or the VP administration for viewing by the public
- Ensure the proper disposal of the finished lamb as per the Chief Marshal, Guild Chairman or the VP administration