Junior Chef News & Activities

At the recently held World Association of Chefs Societies board meeting in Melbourne Australia last week the world president Mr. Gissur Gudmundsson ratified the appointments of the two new junior WACS ambassadors for the term of office 2010 to 2012.

I am happy to announce that the successful candidates chosen are:

Ms. Kelly Lee Conwell representing the American culinary Federation. The United States of America
Ms. Sarah Primrose representing the New Zealand chefs Association. New Zealand.
The two candidates will take up their positions with immediate effect, they will be reporting directly to the chair of the junior chefs liaison committee Mr. Andy Cuthbert, may I call upon all those applicants to join together and support these two young ladies sharing your ideas to assist them in their work over the next two years. I would also like to thank everyone who applied, it has been a real encouragement to see the level of bright young minds and committed young chefs that we have within the World Association of Chefs Societies.

Looking forward to seeing you all in South Korea.
Warmest regards,
Billy
